Most issues can be resolved by updating Adobe Acrobat Reader on your computer.

DIRECTIONS

These true/false cards are great for a story response/comprehension activity. They can be used during your Large Group Literacy time after reading the story. They could also be used during Small Group.

In each set, the first six cards are true and the last six cards are false.

Print the true/false cards, cut along the line, and laminate if you choose. When I use these for Large Group, I often choose not to laminate because of the glare from the room's lighting.

How to Use These Cards:
Draw a line on your whiteboard, write "true" on one side and "false" on the other. (Like a T-chart.) For a visual, you could also draw a smiley face beside the word "true" and a sad face beside "false". You could either stick them directly onto the board, or just stack them into two groups on the whiteboard tray.

Shuffle the cards so the true and false cards are in random order. Take one card, show it to the class, and read it. Have the class decide which side the card should go on.

Or, use the cards the same way during Small Group. Place the cards into two piles as the group decides where they should go.

Optional: Print out the True/False Response Cards, give them to each child in the group. Have them hold up the correct card to show their answer.

Pharaoh made the Israelites work as slaves.

A woman named Jochebed had a baby boy and hid him.

Jochebed put her baby in a basket and placed it in the river.

The baby's sister, Miriam, watched by the river to see what would happen to him.

The Egyptian princess found a baby in the river. She named him Moses.

Moses' mother took care of him, and when he was a little older, he lived in the palace with the princess.
Pharaoh wanted to give lots of toys to all the Israelite baby boys.

The baby's mother put him in a boat to float on the river.

The baby's brother stayed by the river to watch him.
The Egyptian princess went to the ocean to find seashells, but instead found a baby in a basket.

Three wise men brought gifts to baby Moses.

When Moses was a boy, Pharaoh gave him a coat of many colors.
